

REPLICATE EXPLAINED

An FTP Server accessible from all hospital PC's or an Internet FTP Site is used to send all data from individual hospitals to the Head Office PC. Head Office receives data every two hours. Data is sent automatically without any user intervention. The users Head office is an automatic backup of all hospitals data although it is recommended that each hospital has its own backup.